V. Discussion/Action Items

A. INFORMATIONAL: Menstrual Products in Libraries Implementation Status (J. Choi)

Deputy Director of Operations, Jenny Choi, provided an update for the menstrual products in Libraries.

- All 24 branch locations are stocked with sanitary products.
- Library and Public Works worked coordinate to have the products replenishment through the custodial contracts.
- In lieu of the dispensers, Public Works found it more cost effective to not install dispensers but installed shelves, in which baskets are replenished with products.
- Library and Public Works will monitor the ongoing costs as the initial budget was only for the first year. Funding is still available due to cost savings of not installing the dispensers and will be applied to the remaining costs.

There was no public comment. The Commission engaged in discussion.

B. INFORMATIONAL: Climate Adaptation and Resilience Report (M. Gonzales)

Raimi + Associates, Robyn Wong, lead the presentation and discussion in key concepts and scenarios of Climate Adaptation and Resilience.

- Climate Adaptation and Resilience Plan (CARP) - a plan that will identify the foundation measures, policies and procedures needed to eliminate or reduce the exposure of the San Jose community to climate-related threats.
- The Commission ran through various scenarios of experiences with Climate Change.

There was no public comment. The Commission engaged in discussion.

C. INFORMATIONAL: Fiscal Year 2025-2026 Budget Development Prioritization Engagement Exercise (M. Maloy)

Senior Librarian Magan Maloy lead the Commission in a Budget Development Prioritization exercise. The Commission rank the top areas of focus in each priority area. Ranking results is as follows:

- Community Learning
  - Offer educational programming to support formal and informal learning for youth.
  - Provide general enrichment programming on a wide range of topics that reflect the interest of community and align with the Library's collections and resources.
  - Support job seekers to explore and navigate employment pathways, including reskilling, entrepreneurship, and the application process.
  - Provide new and emerging technologies and skills-building to improve communication and information exchange.

- Collect and retain local history. Provide access to unique and historically significant materials that supports exploration and engagement within the community.
- Asset and Infrastructure
  - Ensure facilities are safe, clean, well-maintained, and welcoming to all.
  - Provide access to current technologies that are secure and support access to information.
  - Provide technology and software solutions that support efficiency and reduce low value or mundane tasks.
- Trust and Belonging
  - Cultivate respectful shared spaces where individuals experiencing vulnerabilities - including homelessness and housing insecurity - can connect to supportive service consultations, resource fairs and programs that foster belonging.
  - Support communities seeking information on citizenship, immigration, learning English, and supporting adult literacy.
  - Communicate the value of the library to increase engagement and build trust within the community.
- Right to Library
  - Ensure awareness of library resources and offerings and promote engagement through volunteerism to maximize library benefits and offerings to the community.
  - Build and make available a collection that reflects the wide range of experiences and perspectives within a community.
  - Ensure access to information by maximizing the hours the library can be open to the public.
  - Ensure that reference services are accurate, meaningful, and support the customer's information needs.
  - Provide excellent customer service at all points of engagement and interaction.
  - Make library services and collections accessible and discoverable for our online community.
- Workplace Culture
  - Embrace change and appropriate risks as a learning organization in pursuit of meeting community needs. We constantly reassess our services and methods and try to see ourselves through the public's eyes.
  - Empower individuals to contribute their time, skills and talents to enhance their library and strengthen their community.
  - Provide regular training opportunities, both in-person and virtually.

- Build comradery and a sense of belonging through staff recognition events.
